

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Central Coast Federal Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy of all our members. We value the trust you place in us, and we pledge to keep your personal information and financial records safe, secure, and confidential in keeping with our own service standards and with state and federal laws.

We believe it is important that you understand our commitment to you. Please read further to learn how we collect and disclose your non-public personal information and how you can limit what information we share about you. "Non-public personal information" means any personally-identifiable financial information about you that is not available to the general public, such as your Social Security Number or account numbers.

We may place "cookies" on a computer or other device type to track a visitor's use of our site. A cookie is a piece of data that is stored on your hard drive. It takes up very little room on your system and helps us to customize our site and make its navigation easier for you. You can set your web browser to inform you when cookies are placed on your computer or to prevent them from being placed. However, if you choose to prevent cookies from being placed, some of our web banking functions may not work properly on your computer or mobile device. Unless you register with us for a service (such as our Online Banking service), the cookies do not provide us with any personally identifying information about you, such as your name, address or login information.

We may also use anonymous identifiers which are random strings of characters used for the same purpose as cookies on platforms, including certain mobile devices, where cookie technology is not available.
